

2009/2010
SUNDAY MORNING
MORLEY COLLEGE
FAMILY CONCERTS

10.30-12.30
(interval 11.15-11.45)

On 6 Sunday mornings
Morley welcomes families who love to share the pleasure of music and dance. The Family Concerts are unique for their relaxed informality where young children can feel part of the excitement of performance. Babies are welcome to snooze, very small people needn't be shy, parents soon settle down and are glad they did not leave grandparents,
aunts and uncles at home.

Presented by Shirley Anderson

Morley College, 61 Westminster Bridge Road, SE1 7HT

OCTOBER 4 2009

Percussion

Joby Burgess has a special talent for communicating the joy of percussion to a family audience. Watch and listen, and whatever your age, be enchanted.

Colombian Fun

Enjoy Rotherhithe-based children's dance group Gotitas de Sabor - tots with an abundance of Latin American rhythm and warmth.

NOVEMBER 8

Tudor Tunes

Early musical fun and familiarity from way back in our history played on fascinating and strange instruments for your family delight.

Greek Dance

The Lyra Dancers look lovely and their dancing brings the sunshine and music of Greece to life. Can't wait to join in?

JANUARY 17 2010

Blowing in the Wind

A great family programme of music from your favourite wind quintet - involving all the audience.

U CAN DANCE!

X'po-zure is back again to entertain us with their high velocity rhythm and a good few moves for us to learn.

FEBRUARY 7

Twinkle Twinkle

Young string players from London's Suzuki Group dazzle us with their talent and dedication - especially for the little ones.

Un poco de Flamenco

Ella Parker dances Flamenco and shows us how to clap our hands and stamp our feet to the passionate music of Spain.

APRIL 18

Brilliant Brass

Sparkling music from sparkling players.

Arabian Delight

Rhythmic, sensuous and very good for the body - everybody can join Nicola for some belly dancing.

MAY 16

ORCHESTRA!

Watch this space.

English Folk

Summer isn't far away now - its time for some traditional English Morris dancing
